Resolutions on Death

of Mr. J. M. Bigstaff.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kentucky Bluegrass Seed Company, held at its office in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, on Friday, May 24th, 1912, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That this Board learns with sincere regret of the death of Mr. J. M. Bigstaff, the president of this Board, and desires to place upon record our appreciation of him as a man and an official of this company.

We deplore his loss to the community as a man of sound business judgment, of which we have had convincing evidence in his association with us in the management of the affairs of this company.

We will keenly feel the absence of his wise counsels and earnest efforts to promote the success of this business enterprise with which he was so prominently and actively associated, and feel that in his death we have lost a friend and business associate whose place will be difficult to supply.

A man of abundant means and large interests, his active energy and clear understanding enabled him to manage and direct all his affairs with intelligence and sound judgment until death claimed him.

Unostentatious and retiring in disposition, he abhorred notoriety, and there are many deeds of charity to his credit of which the world at large was ignorant.

We tender to the members of his family our sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at large upon our records, and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased associate.

Miss Daniel to Marry.

The engagement of the marriage of Miss Marguerite May Daniel to Rev. Mayfield Thompson is announced. The wedding will take place at the bride's home in South Boston, Va., June 4th. The bride formerly lived in this city. She is a daughter of Mr. Harvey J. Daniel and has many friends here.

Save yourself a lot of hard labor by buying a Dustless Mop, price 50 cents, at W. A. Sutton & Son.

Patent Mail Deliverer.

Randall Yocum, of Kankakee, Ill., but formerly of this county, has gotten a patent on an automatic rural mail delivery outfit which is said to be a very unique affair. It can be fastened on any kind of a post and by turning a crank the mail box can be brought to the house, thus saving the farmers time and inconvenience in going to the mail box. Sears & Roebuck have bought the Illinois State right for $500 and it now looks as if the patent will make the young man, who is only 19 years old, a small fortune. Mr. Yocum is now at the home of Mr. N. P. Reid in this county on a short visit.

As we are overstocked on dried fruit we will make the following low prices: Evaporated peaches, sold at 17½c, now 12½c; evaporated prunes, sold at 15c, now 10c; evaporated apricots, sold at 20c, now 16½c. Now is your time to buy. Greenwade's.

Piano Recital.

Pupils from the classes of Miss Lida Goodpaster and Miss Nell Pangburn will give a piano recital at the Opera House, Saturday afternoon, June 1, at 2:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Are You One of Them?

Many of our subscribers seem to think it is all right to let their subscription run two or three years, but did you ever stop to think you are one of several hundred that are figuring the same way? This often makes the newspaper man have several thousand dollars due him. If you are in arrears won't you make a special effort to settle in the next thirty days? We will appreciate it.

Accepts Position.

Mr. Jesse Rainey has accepted a position with Mr. Fred G. Morris, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Vibert Sewell. Mr. Rainey has had much experience in this business, is very popular and is sure to add much to the popularity of this place. Mr. Sewell has not decided what business he will engage in, but being an energetic young man he is sure to soon get a lucrative position.

Mr. Homer French has also accepted a position with Mr. Morris. He is a capable and bright young fellow and gives promise of soon becoming an expert in this line.

Victim of White Plague.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Bertha Gess, wife of George Gess, a fireman for the C. & O. on the coal road, died at her home in this city. She was a member of the Baptist Church and was a good Christian woman. She moved here from Lexington with her husband about three years ago. The remains were taken to Lexington Friday morning for interment. She is survived by her husband and one son.

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter.

Mr. Richard Schultz, of Louisville, well known here as the handler of the Powhatan Stock Farm show horses, which show here at the fair each year, pleaded guilty of the charge of manslaughter in the Criminal Court of Louisville Wednesday and was fined $200.

Roosevelt and Harmon in Ohio.

In Ohio's first presidential preference primary last Tuesday, Col. Roosevelt defeated President Taft by about 25,000 majority, securing 32 of the 42 district delegates and the six delegates-at-large.

Gov. Judson Harmon won the Democratic preference vote over Gov. Woodrow Wilson by a good majority, and as the unit rule prevails in the Democratic State Conventions he will secure all of his home State's 48 votes.

PROMINENT BANKER

Mr. J. M. Bigstaff Died At His Home Here Thursday.

Had Long Been Identified With Traders' National Bank.

Mr. James M. Bigstaff, the wealthiest man residing in Montgomery county, died at his home in this city last Thursday of cancer of the stomach. He had been a resident since 1872, having moved here from Bath county. For many years he was connected with the Exchange Bank of this city and left that institution to become President of the Traders Deposit Bank, and upon that bank being Nationalized he was again selected as its President, which responsible position he held at the time of his death.

Mr. Bigstaff was the owner of what is said to be the richest farm in this section of the State, comprising something over 3,000 acres of land, and gave much of his time toward the managing of this vast estate. He was also President of the Blue Grass Seed Co. and was therefore necessarily a very busy man. As to his ability, the handsome fortune he left, which is estimated at from one-half to three-quarters of a million dollars, is evidence conclusive of his business acumen.

He has been the friend and adviser of many of our most prominent men who have profited by his advice and fine business sense and to many his death will be a distinct loss.

Mr. James Morrison Bigstaff was born in Bath county, Kentucky, May 20, 1842, therefore was seventy years and three days old at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Col. Thomas T. Jones, of Bath county, May 1, 1862, who, with four children, Thomas Jones Bigstaff, Mrs. T. Benton Hill, Mrs. Hanly C. Ragan and Odd Samuel Bigstaff, survive him.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Geo. Kennard, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark, Saturday afternoon and burial in the family graveyard on the Springfield Farm in Bath county. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of countless friends.

M'CREARY OR JAMES

Which Shall It Be, Is the Question to Be Decided Today.

This County Instructed for McCreary and Vansant 3 to 1.

The friends of both Gov. McCreary and Congressman James are claiming victory in the race for temporary Chairman of the Democratic Convention as are also the admirers of Hon. R. H. Vansant and Hon. J. M. Stevenson claiming their victory for Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committees. Papers all over the State are divided in their opinions and it looks like the uninstructed delegations hold the balance of power and the men that can control them will be returned the winners.

This county instructed for McCreary and Vansant in the above races.

Ringo's Pony Contest.

Mr. Henry M. Ringo, proprietor of Ringo's cafe, has announced the beginning of a pony contest June 1st. Mr. Ringo, who has one of the most modern cafe's in Eastern Kentucky, is a wide awake, energetic business man and that this contest (the plan of which may be seen on another page of this paper) will be a hummer goes without saying. Fill out a nominating blank and get busy.

Buys School Property.

At the recent sale of the school building occupied by the Mt. Sterling Collegiate Institute Mrs. W. H. Cord became the purchaser. We are informed the county needs a building for its high school and understanding it is for sale, we know of no better building to be had anywhere, if it can be secured at a reasonable price.

New Elks.

LIKE FINDING MONEY

W. S. Lloyd Offers Popular Medicine at Half-Price.

W. S. Lloyd, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means for it is only recently through the solicitation of Druggist W. S. Lloyd that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents, he urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, W. S. Lloyd will return your money. 43-45-47

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one Creaked disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Junior Audubon Clubs.

Junior Audubon bird clubs are being organized in some of the Kentucky schools. Such organizations deserve to prosper and to increase in number.

The objects of the Junior Audubon clubs are: to study the birds in their respective communities; to protect the birds; to attract birds around schools and homes; to observe with suitable ceremonies some day in spring to be known as Bird day. These are all laudable purposes and there is no better plan of conserving bird life than by interesting the pupils in the public schools in the movement for protection and preservation.

Kentucky, perhaps, has several hundred varieties of birds, but the average citizen when he gets beyond a score or so of the most common kinds is densely ignorant in bird differentiation and is thoroughly indifferent about increasing his knowledge of the subject. Nevertheless the birds play an important part in the economy of nature. They are friends of humanity, but many persons are prone to treat them as enemies. Too often they are victims of wanton slaughter by reckless hunters or by thoughtless boys. There would be fewer atrocities by the latter class if the bird clubs were more numerous in the public schools and the rising generations better educated thereby as to the kind and character and value of representatives of the feathered world. There should be many such clubs in Kentucky schools and the movement in that direction should receive general encouragement.

ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR CONGRESS

We are authorized to announce

HON. W. J. FIELDS

of Olive Hill, Carter county, as a candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary on Saturday, August 3rd, 1912.

TURNPIKES TO BE REPAIRED.

The Fiscal Court has advertised for bids for two thousand five hundred rods of knapped or crushed rock, bids to be filed with the County Clerk by ten o'clock next Tuesday morning, when they will be considered by the court.

This is the largest public letting ever attempted in Montgomery county, meaning an outlay of from eight to ten thousand dollars. The past winter was a very severe one on the turnpikes and while that amount of rock looks like a large quantity, we are told much more could be used, if the money could be legally obtained.

Under the present law, without a bond issue, enough money can not be raised from year to year to properly repair the pikes.

We would like, however, to make one suggestion, and that is that all rock, as soon after it is put out as practicable, be rolled. This could be done inexpensively, and we are advised many other counties are doing this and are well pleased with the results obtained.

PROTECT OUR WATER COURSES.

In this issue will be found a card from Dr. J. A. Shirley, President County Board of Health, and Dr. W. R. Thompson, Health Officer, which we hope will be carefully considered by every reader of the ADVOCATE, and especially those living along Slate Creek or streams leading into it.

When one realizes that an epidemic may be started by one careless act, committed often miles away, the great importance of care where vaults, stables and dead animals are placed, is evident.

We know no one would violate this all-important law wilfully, hence we publish this card and commend it to the careful consideration of our readers in the hope that in so doing we may render a public service.

HE MAY LAUGH LAST.

A few weeks ago we heard many local Republicans say in substance that Judge Ed. C. O'Rear was surely committing political suicide in his earnest support of Mr. Roosevelt. Now it begins to look like he is to be their nominee and if elected there will be nothing too good for the Judge. From the view-point of an interested on-looker, it now seems like Judge O'Rear may yet have the opportunity to dish out Federal pie and may prove himself to be a very live political corpse.

The Courier-Journal is quite right. No self-respecting newspaper should dignify by notice attacks from the "obviously perverse and the transparently dishonest."

There is no doubt about it; our old friend, William Percy Dennis Haly, is some politician.

Father-in-Law of Mrs. D. U. Libscomb Dies in Nashville.

Mr. H. G. Lipscomb, of Nashville, Tenn., father-in-law of Mrs. D. U. Libscomb, aged 62 years, president of one of the leading banks of Nashville and a prominent business man and financier, died recently at his home in Nashville. Mr. D. U. Libscomb married Miss Nell Winn, of this city, and is well known here where he has many friends who will learn with regret of the death of his father.

Death of John Wilson.

John Wilson, aged 75 years on April 4th, died at his home at Helechewa, Wolfe county, on Saturday morning, May 25th, 1912, at 6 o'clock, after a sickness of two hours with hemorrhage of the brain. The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon at the village church, conducted by his kinsman, Frank Press Wilson, assisted by Rev. Gullett. His body rests in the country graveyard near by. A great crowd was present, and many flowers attested the esteem in which he was held. His wife, now in her 81st year, is the only living sister of J. G. Trimble, of this city, and Frank Trimble, of Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Wilson is survived by his son, Harlan, his wife and her four children, of whom one is Mrs. Joe A. Stephens, of this city. He was kind hearted, generous and loyal to his friends. Having committed himself to the Christ, he was living for a brighter future, and was not afraid to go hence.

Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. G. B. Swango attended the funeral.

WARNING.

To the Citizens of Montgomery County:

In order that the people who own water courses and live along same may understand their duties to the general public with reference to the polluting of water, we desire to call their attention to Section 1278 of the Kentucky Statutes, which reads as follows:

"If any person shall cast or place the carcass of any cattle, or that of any other dead beast, in any water course, or within twenty-five yards thereof, or shall cast the same into any spring, or into any pond, such person, for every such offense, shall be fined for the first offense not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, and every subsequent offense not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars."

This section of the law is especially applicable at this time to Slate Creek, as several hundred families are now using the water and more will use it all the time for drinking purposes. Believing that no citizen of the county would want to do anything that would injure the health or destroy the life of any human being, we are giving this WARNING.

Another section of the law to which we desire to call your attention is Section 62 Kentucky Statutes, which reads as follows:

"If the owner of any distempered cattle, or hogs diseased with hog-cholera, shall permit them to run at large outside of his enclosure, or shall drive the same into or through any part of this Commonwealth, unless it be from one portion of his own enclosure to another, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for each head and be liable by civil action for any damages that may occur by the spreading of the disease; and when any such cattle or hogs shall die, the owner thereof shall cause them to be BURNED or BURIED, and if he fail, he shall be fined five dollars for each offense."

TRUTHFUL REPORTS

Mt. Sterling Reads Them With Uncommon Interest.

A Mt. Sterling citizen tells her experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced.

Mrs. Mary F. Henson, 21 Strothers street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are indeed all that one could want for kidney complaint. What I said in 1908 in their praise still holds good. Had I not taken Doan's Kidney Pills, I believe that I would not be alive today. My health was very poor and the doctor said I had diabetes. I doctored but in vain. My whole system became affected and I was almost helpless. I had nervous spells, headaches and sight was poor. I often became dizzy and had to catch a hold of something for support. For several months my body was so badly swollen that I could not bend. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to try them, I got a box at Duerson's Drug Store. The relief they brought me was almost instant and continued using them until I was well.

Reunion.
The grand old men who kept time to the wild grand music of war between 1861-65 assembled in Macon last week to let those past scenes rise before them. The heroism of those brave men should not be without its stirring influence upon us, their more fortunate descendants. We invoke their example not because we desire to stir the heart with the recital of their martial exploits, not because we wish to consecrate the military ideal, but that we might prove ourselves worthy of their brave endeavors. We would honor them today, by driving out from the sanctuaries public and private the false gods that have been admitted to them. The age in which we live needs the manifestation of their heroism; the city in which we dwell requires the outpouring of their heroic spirit which will lead men to rise, and speak and work out the truth, without fear of consequence, and in spirit of "hatred, scoffing and abuse." This great and growing South stands in need of men of their heroic proportions, who will pursue the path indicated by conscience and approved by reason. Honor to the men who when the cry came to them, "Come on," answered it by going on. They knew only one fear, the fear of not being true to what they felt was the call of duty. They had one great contempt, scorn of the coward.—Arkansas Thomas Cat.

Fools shirk the responsibilities of life and dodge its duties, but in so doing they miss its glories and fail to secure its greatest blessings. In rejecting the cross they lose the crown.

"I Am Well"

writes Mrs. L. R. Barker, of Bud, Ky., "and can do all my housework. For years I suffered with such pains, I could scarcely stand on my feet. After three different doctors had failed to help me, I gave Cardui a trial. Now, I feel like a new woman."

E 58
Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

A woman's health depends so much upon her delicate organs, that the least trouble there affects her whole system. It is the little things that count, in a woman's life and health. If you suffer from any of the aches and pains, due to womanly weakness, take Cardui at once, and avoid more serious troubles. We urge you to try it. Begin today.

The Swine Industry.

Only about 66 per cent. of the farms in Kentucky reported hogs when the Federal census of 1910 was taken. That fact would seem to justify the statement of the Agricultural Experiment Station, in a bulletin just issued, that the swine industry in the State deserves much more attention than it now is receiving.

The Experiment Station bulletin contains some good advice on the subject for Kentucky farmers. It sets forth that not only should the number of animals produced annually be increased, but also "the breeding and feeding should receive more careful attention." The enterprising farmer will be impressed with the assertions that "we cannot afford to raise any but the best hogs;" that whereas "a good grade is better than a poor animal of pure breeding, the average pure bred is infinitely better than the average grade, to say nothing of the scrubs," and that "one of the best features of any kind of stock farming is that it stimulates other farm activities."

There is too much scrub stock of all kinds in Kentucky and the admonition that "we cannot afford to raise any but the best" might well be applied to other lines of animal husbandry. Kentucky's biggest crop is corn, and corn is the superior article of food for the mature hog. Corn and hogs are naturally associated as products of the farm and while nearly all the farms in Kentucky produce corn, fewer than three-fourths of them reported hogs in the census year of 1910. The State needs to grow more corn and to raise more hogs and to improve the general average of both products.

Advertising Lesson.

It goes without saying that the largest proportion of retail advertising is done in daily and weekly newspapers.

Retail merchants often make the same mistake with advertising that they sometimes do with charge accounts; they do not handle advertising as if it were actual money a real dollar bill right in their hands.

Too often they sign a year's contract for advertising in a newspaper; and then as soon as the novelty wears off; and the drudgery of filling the space with copy comes on, they regard that advertising as a necessary evil, just like book-keeping. When advertising is viewed in that light, it can not produce its best results, nor can it succeed.

First let us try and understand the art of convincing through advertising whether in newspaper or any other kind of medium.

The very first principal of writing good advertising is to forget yourself and forget your store and fix clearly in mind your readers.

One big store in New York is said to spend one million dollars a year in advertising, while another big store is said to spend less than one hundred thousand dollars in advertising. The one who spends a million is talking about himself all time; the one who spends one hundred thousand dollars is talking to its customers.

Note the distinction and the meaning; there is a vast difference in the two kinds of advertising.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With A Veil; Remove Them With The New Drug.

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength, which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Wm. S. Lloyd under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask Wm. S. Lloyd for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee. 41-etc

The mind needs care and cultivation as well as the soil; and the former will run to weeds and thistles as soon as the latter if it is neglected.

No matter what style or material, you will find the best models in the RED CROSS. 41tf

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of Executions Nos. 129-137 directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Montgomery Circuit Court in favor of J. E. Plummer and Thos. J. Allen against Silas Johnson, I, or one of my deputies, will, on between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m. at the Court House door, in Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, the following property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy Plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, to-wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in Montgomery county, Ky., and bounded on the West by the lands of Clay and Kirkpatrick; on the North by the land of Geo. Humphries, David T. Duncan and Hinkston creek; East by land of Mrs. Sallie Wilson, South by land of Clay & Kirkpatrick and containing about 70 acres of land levied on as the property of Silas Johnson.

The amount of the Plaintiff, J. E. Plummer's, debt, interest and cost $50.26, the amount of the Plaintiff, Thos. J. Allen's, debt, interest and cost $20.11, making a total of both of Plaintiff's debt, interest and cost $130.37, levied on as the property of Silas Johnson.

TERMS—Sale will be made on a credit of three months, the purchaser to execute bond, with approved security, to have the force and effect of a Replevin Bond.

Witness my hand this 22nd day of May, 1912. W. F. CROOKS, Sheriff Montgomery County.

No Vote, No Taxes,

Declares Woman.

Chicago.—Miss Belle Squire, president of the "No Vote, No Tax" League, refused to fill out a personal property tax schedule. Instead, she wrote this letter in a blank space of the schedule and mailed it to the assessors.

"Gentlemen: Just so long as the county of Cook hands me a tax schedule on the ground that I am a citizen of Illinois, and must pay my share of the common expense, and then refuses me a ballot on the ground that I am a woman, and as a woman, have no right to make my citizenship effectual, just so long will I refuse to be voluntarily on your lists. I decline the honor.

"If, too, in the sight of the State, only male brains are capable of solving the intrinsic problems of politics and government, I decline to worry my female brains to solve the problem of how that government is to meet its bills.

"I was born a female. No tears, no prayers will change that fact, and I refuse to apologize for being what I am, or to make excuses for the kind of body the Creator gave me. Therefore I absolutely refuse to aid or support the government that dishonors and demeans my womanhood."

At First Sight.

One of the many subjective sorrows of adolescence is loneliness, and a sense of comradeship is especially dear to the young. To the youth of this restless generation, who has perhaps spent four years or more trying feverishly to find sympathy in the broad and peaceful traditions of an academic education, or who comes from the too unvaried place of the hamlet where he was born, the first glimpse of the towers and pinacles of New York City is like the sudden revelation of an unsuspected friend. East of the Rocky Mountains there is perhaps nothing quite so magnificent. Long, yearning lines mingle with the square and horizontal; the spirit of the city, instead of prostrating itself before the immensity of its own creation, stands with eyes and hands reaching heavenward. The people like their shops and dwelling houses grope upward. They walk quickly, heads erect. From the little immigrant who longs for a Harlem flat and a willow plum to the social worker with eyes far-seeing, their faces are skyward. Ancient customs and dear traditions go down, as the landmarks vanish from the market place, and there is sad wreckage, human as well as structural, cluttering the streets; but a civilization, like an individual, is judged not by its failures or successes, but by that to which it aspires. What it is we are aiming at who knows, but the spirit of the city, like the spirit of the age, is aspiration.—Collier's.
